

RUSHDENERS NVCA NEEDS YOU!

Nene Valley Community Action is looking for volunteers to take part in a Heritage Lottery funded project.

1918-2018 "Then & Now"

The project will look at the changes which have happened in the past 100 years. It will explore changes in:

Clothing
School & Education
Food & Cookery Toys

Each group will run for 4-6 weeks, working with local school children focusing on one topic and sharing their experiences of Rushden past and present.

If you have skills or an interest in the above topics and wish to share your experiences with a younger generation please contact us at: info@nvca.org.uk or on 01933 396382

1918 - 2018
Then
&
NOW

Nene Valley
Community
Action

100 YEARS OF TEDDY BEARS

1918-2018 SEND US A PHOTO OF YOUR TEDDY BEAR

We are asking the people of Rushden to look through photographs or take photographs of your childhood teddy bears. Send us a copy and let us know the year you got it, if you remember. We hope to get a teddy bear photograph for each year!

This is part of our year long project, 1918-2018 "Then & Now". Your teddy bear photos will then join our exhibition which will be open to the public later this year to commemorate the 100 years of armistice. During this year we are also looking at 4 main topics to see the changes over the last 100 years.

GET INVOLVED!

01933 396382

Copies to: melanie@nvca.org.uk or

 facebook.com/RushdenThenNow

Nene Valley
Community Action

Then
&
NOW

LOTTERY FUNDED

THE DUNSMITH
LEGION

1918-2018
"THEN & NOW"

YOU ARE INVITED!

Join us as we celebrate the end of our heritage project!

FRIDAY 2ND NOVEMBER 2018

12:00PM-2:30PM

Wesleyan Chapel Hall,
Queen Street, Rushden,
NN10 0AA

Please R.S.V.P by

Thursday 11th October 2018

For more information
please contact Hannah
on 01933 313526 or hannah@nvca.org.uk

Nene Valley
Community
Action

Appendix 4: Exhibition Poster

1918-2018
"THEN & NOW"

EXHIBITION

R
E
M
E
M
B
E
R

Mondays - Thursdays
throughout November
10am to 2pm

100 YEARS OF:-

Food & Cookery, Clothing, Toys, Schooling
& stories about some of the Rushden men who lost their lives in WW1.

NENE VALLEY COMMUNITY ACTION,
8 West Street, Rushden, NN10 0RT

For more information please contact Hannah
on 01933 313526 or hannah@nvca.org.uk

Nene Valley
Community Action

Then
&
NOW

heritage lottery fund
LOTTERY FUNDED

Appendix 5: Press Releases.

Then and now

Nene Valley Community Action has been carrying out a Heritage Lottery Funded project over the past year.

1918-2018 'Then & Now' has been looking at the changes which have taken place over the 100 years since the end of the First World War. The project has worked with schools, community groups and local volunteers to explore the changes in food, clothing, toys and schooling. The group has also been gathering information and stories about some of the men whose names appear on Rushden's war memorial. To showcase the group's work, Nene Valley Community Action is hosting an exhibition.

The exhibition will be open to the general public and will take place at 8 West Street, Rushden, Monday to Thursday, 10am to 2pm throughout November. It will also be open on Saturday 10th November, 10am to 2pm. All are welcome. If you are interested in bringing a group to view the exhibition or would like any further information please telephone 01933 313526.

Nene Valley News - Volunteers

100 YEARS OF TEDDY BEARS!

SEND US A PHOTO OF YOUR TEDDY BEAR.

We have been asking the local community to look through photos or take a photo of their childhood teddy bear.

We still need teddy photos from the years;

1918-1934, 1938, 1939, 1940, 1941, 1942, 1944, 1946
1964, 1966, 1970, 1971, 1972, 1989, 1990, 1992, 1993 & 1994

If you have a teddy bear / photo from one of these years please send us a copy!

This is part of our year long project, 1918-2018 'Then & Now'. Your teddy bear photos will then join our exhibition which will be open to the public later this year to commemorate the 100 years of armistice.

info@nvca.org.uk
01933 313526

facebook.com/RushdenThenNow

Rushden Reporter – Teddy Bear photos

Then and now

Nene Valley Community Action has been carrying out a Heritage Lottery Funded project over the past year.

1918-2018 'Then & Now' has been looking at the changes which have taken place over the 100 years since the end of the First World War. The project has worked with schools, community groups and local volunteers to explore the changes in food, clothing, toys and schooling. The group has also been gathering information and stories about some of the men whose names appear on Rushden's war memorial. To showcase the group's work, Nene Valley Community Action is hosting an exhibition.

The exhibition will be open to the general public and will take place at 8 West Street, Rushden, Monday to Thursday, 10am to 2pm throughout November. It will also be open on Saturday 10th November, 10am to 2pm. All are welcome. If you are interested in bringing a group to view the exhibition or would like any further information please telephone 01933 313526.

Nene Valley News – WW1 stories

Then and now

DOES your ancestor's name appear on Rushden's war memorial?

Nene Valley Community Action, as part of its 1918-2018 Then and Now project, is looking to hear from anyone whose ancestor were killed during the final year of the First World War, 1918, and is listed on Rushden's war memorial.

Contact info@nvca.org.uk, or on 01933 313526, if you would like to

Rushden Reporter – WW1 stories

Does your ancestor's name appear on Rushden's war memorial?

Nene Valley Community Action, as part of their 1918-2018 'Then & Now' project, want to hear from anyone whose ancestor was killed during 1918 and is listed on Rushden's war memorial.

"We are gathering stories about those men who made the ultimate sacrifice to use as part of our exhibition which will be open to the public in Rushden during November this year. Nene Valley Community Action have been working with various groups and schools from Rushden to explore the changes which have taken place both locally and nationally in the 100 years since the First World War ended. Including these men's stories in our exhibition is our way of honouring them."

If you wish to share your relative's story, photograph or other memorabilia please contact us at info@nvca.org.uk or on 01933 313526.

28/7/2018 Nene Valley

Nene Valley News – WW1

Stories

Nene Valley Community Action

Nene Valley Community Action has been carrying out a Heritage Lottery Funded project over the past year. 1918-2018 "Then & Now" has been looking at the changes which have taken place over the 100 years since the end of the First World War. The project has worked with schools, community groups and local volunteers to explore the changes in food, clothing, toys and schooling. We have also been gathering information and stories about some of the men whose names appear on Rushden's war memorial. To showcase the groups work and the information they have learnt Nene Valley Community Action is hosting an exhibition. The exhibition will be open to the general public and will take place at 8 West Street, Rushden, Monday to Thursday, 10am to 2pm throughout November. We will also be opening on Saturday 10th November, 10am to 2pm. All are welcome.

If you are interested in bringing a group to view the exhibition or would like any further information please telephone us on 01933 313526.

Village Connect – Exhibition

Exhibition – Facebook

Raunds Round Up – Exhibition.

